BAD STOMACH MAKES BAD BLOOD.

You can't make sweet butter in a foul churn. Every farmer's wife knows this. Your stomach churns and digests the food you eat, and if foul, torpid or out of order, your whole system suffers from blood poisoning. You will have foul breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor appetite and a whole train of disagreeable symptoms. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is not a beverage composed of whisky or alcohol, being entirely free from intoxicants, is a great regulator and invigorator of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

"About a year ago I was ill with blood poisoning," writes Miss Evelina Louis, of 69 Walter Street, Buffalo, N. Y. "I had what seemed to be a small cold sore on my lip. It became very angry in appearance and began to spread until it nearly covered my face. I was a frightful sight and could not go outside the house because of my appearance. I used a blood medicine which did not give me any relief. Then I began to take your Golden Medical Discovery. I was greatly benefited with the first bottle and after taking the second bottle was completely cured. The erysipelatous eruption disappeared and my blood was cleansed. My complexion is clear and fresh and I have felt better this year than I did for some time before. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is certainly a most remarkable medicine."

Don't accept a substitute for a medicine which performs such cures and which has a uniformly successful record of nearly forty years to its credit. It's an insult to your intelligence for a dealer to try by over-persuasion to palm off upon you in its stead some inferior article with no record to back it up. You know what you want; it is his business to meet that want.

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Advisor, a book that sold to the extent of 500,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away 250,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away $50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Constipation although a little ill, begets big ones if neglected. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cures constipation.

A FACT PROVEN.

Should Convince Even the Most Skeptical of Its Truth.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit innoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time.

It must be apparent to any person therefore that the only prevention of baldness is the destruction of the germ—which act is successfully accomplished in one hundred per cent. of cases by the application of Newbro's Herpicide.

Dandruff is caused by the same germ which causes baldness and can be prevented with the same remedy—Newbro's Herpicide.

HAMLINS WIZARD OIL

If you have ever experienced its gentle, quieting influence, on an aching, throbbing head, tooth, or other nerve, you will never be without it in the house.

"I had been subject to sick headache for over 5 years," writes Mrs. A. C. Scharfer of Great Bend, Kan. "I used one bottle of Hamlins Wizard Oil, and have not had a headache since."

And C. Dieckman, of 193 Hendricks St., Detroit, Mich., writes: "I have always found relief from earache by using Hamlins Wizard Oil." Price 50c and $1.00.

Barricaded in a Bank Vault.

William Leduc, a farmer, enraged over domestic affairs, Saturday shot and killed Mayor Charles Nickel, his brother-in-law, in the bank of Chenoa, Ill., and Hugh Jones, a brick mason; slightly wounded two pedesterians, and, dragging Jones's body into the bank vault, partly closed the door and defied arrest for many hours against officers and citizens, with whom he exchanged scores of shots. Up to a late hour Saturday Leduc had not been captured.

Leduc, well-armed, went from his farm Saturday afternoon, walked into the bank and without warning shot Nickel, who is cashier of the bank as well as mayor, dead. Hugh Jones, Cashier Nickel's son, and another boy were in the bank. The boys escaped through a back door. Jones attempted to grapple with Leduc and was shot.

Two men passed along the street and Leduc, apparently fearing that they might attempt to capture him, shot them, one in the head, the other in the hand, but their wounds are not serious.

An immense crowd, armed, gathered in the bank in an attempt to capture the slayer, but Leduc, within the vault with Jones's body, would allow no one to come within range of his weapon. Leduc told the officers that Jones was dead.

Ammonia and chloroform were used plentifully in an attempt to overcome Leduc, but the partly opened door admitted enough air to thwart the effect of the drugs.

Sheriff Edwards and deputies arrived later, but Leduc, who is well supplied with ammunition, withstood the attack of the officers.

High-voltage electric wires have been strung from the electric light plant to the bank, and unless Leduc surrenders within a few hours it is planned to render him helpless by connecting the wires with the bank vault and turning on the current as soon as it is determined that Jones is dead.

Pay of Ministers.

Among the bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church now in session in Washington the opinion is expressed that the pay of the ministers of the gospel has not increased in proportion to the constantly increasing cost of living. This is a business proposition that not even the clergy can overlook. Debarred from gathering any wordly goods in a business way because of the years spent in training for their calling, they are compelled to depend for their comforts and necessities upon the generosity of their parishioners and often that generosity is extended meagerly.

"Salaries paid the clergy," said Bishop J. F. Berry, of Buffalo, "are none too good at best, and, taking the country over, have remained stationary for some time. Of course, some congregations keep pace with the increasing demands upon the minister; but, speaking generally, it is safe to say that salaries have not advanced to meet existing conditions. Living expenses have been growing year after year; they will be higher this year than last, and the church people ought to meet this situation in the material way so necessary even for the members of the clergy."

Jumped from Burning House.

Three people were seriously injured, one of them subsequently dying, and a dozen others had a narrow escape from the flames in a fire that destroyed the priests' house at Nazareth Orphanage, a Catholic boys' institution, three miles from Raleigh, N. C., early yesterday morning.

The fire broke out between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday morning and spread rapidly. Twelve people in the building escaped by jumping from the second and third story windows. Elven Buffalo, aged thirteen, and John Glavish, aged fifteen, were hemmed in by the flames on top of the building, forty-five feet above ground.

Timothy Wallace, of New York, who has been studying for the priesthood, climbed the building to rescue them, but was cut off from the stairways, and the three jumped, all being mangled and injured seriously. Glavish died last night in the hospital, and Buffalo is not expected to live.

Dr. Lamb, of New York, and Rev. Fathers Price and O'Brien jumped from the windows thirty feet to the ground, but are not seriously injured. The property loss is over $25,000.

A Daredevil Ride

often ends in a sad accident. To heal accidental injuries, use Bucklen's Arnica Salve." "A deep wound in my foot, from an accident," writes Theodore Schuele, of Columbus, O., "caused me great pain. Physicians were helpless, but Bucklen's Arnica Salve quickly healed it." Soothes and heals burns like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.

Faith Not Necessary.

You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is curing hunereds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you, whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co. 401 King street.

WHY DOCTORS FAIL AND MRS. PINKHAM SUCCEEDS

Plain Reasons Are Here Given to Explain Why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cures When Doctors Are Powerless

A woman is sick; some disease peculiar to her sex is fast developing in her system. She goes to her family physician and tells him a story, but not the whole story.

She holds something back, loses her head, becomes agitated, forgets what she wants to say, and finally conceals what she ought to have told, and thus completely mystifies the doctor.

Is it any wonder, therefore, that the doctors fail to cure the disease? Still we cannot blame the woman, for it is very embarrassing to detail some of the symptoms of her suffering, even to her family physician.

It was for this reason that years ago Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., determined to step in and help her sex. Having had considerable experience in treating female ills with her Vegetable Compound, she encouraged the women of America to write to her for advice in regard to their complaints, and being a woman, it was easy for her ailing sisters to pour into her ears every detail of their suffering.

In this way she was able to do for them what the physicians were unable to do, simply because she had the proper information to work upon, and from the little group of women who sought her advice years ago a great army of her fellow-beings are to-day constantly applying for advice and relief, and the fact that many thousands of them have been cured by following the advice of Mrs. Pinkham during the last year is indicative of the grand results which are produced by her unequaled experience and training.

No physician in the world has had such a training, or has such an amount of information at hand to assist in the treatment of all kinds of female ills, from the simplest local irritation to the most complicated womb diseases.

This, therefore, is the reason why Mrs. Pinkham, in her laboratory at Lynn, Mass., is able to do more for the ailing women of America than the family physician. Any woman, therefore, is responsible for her own suffering who will not take the trouble to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice.

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

Togo Addressed Spirits.

The great Shinto rites, in memory of the naval officers and men who were killed during the war, were held yesterday at Aoyama Cemetery, near Tokio. Besides the admirals, officers and sailors, hundreds of civil dignitaries were present.

Admiral Togo addressed the departed spirits, eulogizing their noble deeds in battle and their gallant co-operation which resulted in the sacrifice of their lives. He humbly asked response for the spirits whose exemplary deeds in life had contributed to the victory over a powerful enemy.

While reading his address Admiral Togo was seen to be stirred with strong emotion, which was in contrast with his calm demeanor while on the bridge of the Mikasa during the hottest battles.

The ceremony was most impressive, and calculated to leave a lasting impression on those who witnessed it. Thousands of sailors marched to the accompanying strains of music to the cementery and afterward to the naval club.

Flung Her Into The Sea.

A dispatch from Dantzic says that seventeen people have been arrested at Putzig on the charge of complicity in the murder of a woman named Anna Ceynowa, who was reputed a witch. The woman was blindfolded and conducted to the summit of the rocky promontory of Hela, in the Baltic, and then flung into the sea. As she succeeded in swimming ashore the villagers strangled her by drawing the long tresses of her hair around her throat.

They afterwards gave themselves up to the police, as a matter of form, they said, declaring that they had performed a meritorious act in ridding the neighborhood of a sorceress.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

'Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 30, 1905.

THIS is the last week of the political campaign in the State and on tomorrow week Virginia will again cast her fortune with the democratic party and the other southern States. So sure are the democrats of success and so sure are the republicans of defeat that the campaign, as a rule, has been tame and the political meetings, save in a few localities, have not been so largely attended as in days gone by. Still, every democrat owes it to himself and to his party to go to the polls and cast his vote for the regular nominees on the seventh of November. The democrats have put up a strong and an able ticket and cast over 82,000 votes in the primary. Having gone thus far, they would be recreant to their trust if they failed to elect their ticket by a big majority.

QUO WARRANTO proceedings at Akron, Ohio, were commenced in the Circuit Court Saturday by Prosecuting Attorney Hagelberger, against the Mutual Life Insurance Company and the New York Life Insurance Company to oust them from the State by taking their franchises from them, on the ground that the companies have misused their powers for the past five years in violation of the laws of the State. Such action by all the States would have the effect of bringing about a better condition of affairs in all insurance companies. It is alleged that both the companies named above in their annual statements failed to disclose a large sum, said to be over $100,000, contributed to Cornelius N. Bliss, of the National Republican Committee, and also paid out $256,000 in guise of legal fees to lobbyists to influence the Legislature in Ohio and other States.

A STATEMENT just issued by the Navy Department shows that within a short time six new battleships will be added to the navy of the United States; namely, the Virginia, Louisiana, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Georgia and New Jersey. Seven other first-class battleships, six armored and three protected, cruisers are under construction. Many believe that this increase in the navy, instead of preserving peace, will have the effect of bringing about war.

A SPECIAL board of engineers who investigated work on Philadelphia's filtration plants and boulevards declares the city has lost $6,330,000 through alleged irregularities. Under the present republican misrule in Philadelphia, the only wonder is that the "gang" did not steal the whole appropriation.

THE German Emperor announced Saturday that the nation had no reason to "fear the whole world in arms." The Emperor should remember the biblical injunction, "Let him who stands take heed lest he fall."

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30.

One of the tasks mapped out for the Senate this winter is the question of ratifying a treaty with San Marino. It is only an extradition treaty and will probably not vie with the Santo Dominican instrument in point of public interest, but there are features about the item which give it the spice of novelty. San Marino is the oldest State in Europe and the smallest. Its area is only 38 square miles, its population, according to the census of 1899, just 11,002, and it has a standing army of 950 men. San Marino lies on coast of the Adriatic Sea in the northern part of Italy and is governed by a grand council of sixty members and a smaller council of twelve. If the Senate ratifies the extradition treaty, which Henry White the American Ambassador at Rome has just transmitted to the State Department, San Marino will establish a cousulate general at Washington.

Judge Charles Swayne, of the federal court of Florida, who was unsuccessfully impeached before the bar of the Senate last term, received another vindication today—this time by the Supreme Court of the United States. It was in the case of McGuire vs. Blunt. The case was an action of ejectment to recover land in Pensacola, Florida, the verdict in the lower court being in favor of the defendant. This judgment was affirmed today. The case hinged upon charges made against Judge Swayne, the trial judge, which were to the effect that he had no right to try the case because his wife had an interest in the property in question. Justice Day, delivering the unanimous opinion of the Supreme Court of the United States, held that there was no evidence of such interest and that there was nothing to prevent Judge Swayne from sitting in the case.

Recent criticisms of the expenses incurred by the office of the purchasing agent of the Postoffice Department called forth this morning a reply, backed up with statistics, from Postmaster General Cortelyou. W. E. Cochran is the head of the office, he having been promoted to that position from the position of chief postoffice inspector, after the recent postoffice investigations. Mr. Courtelyou wrote letters to thirty-five of the largest railroad systems in the country to secure statistics about their purchasing offices. It had been claimed that the postoffice was much more expensive than that of railroads. In the statement today the Postmaster General says that each company employes on an average twenty-five clerks in the office of its agent to buy $9,962,671 worth of supplies of 4,699 miles of road. He is pleased to compare with these figures those of his purchasing agent, who buys annually supplies amounting to $3,480,633, with one-third the force employed by railroads.

The public printing investigating committee today heard Capt. Thomas H. McKee, former journal clerk of the House of Representatives who pointed out a number of publications the printing of which in his opinion may well be discontinued. One fifth of all the documents printed by order of House or Senate annually are useless, he said. Thomas B. Penicks, assistant foreman of the bindery exposed extravagance in the selection of expensive binding material when a cheaper one would have served the purpose.

When the gifts acquired by Miss Alice Roosevelt during her recent Philippine, Japanese and Chinese tour arrive in Washington, they will pass through one of the first custom houses established in the United States—Georgetown. When goods exceeding $100 in value are received at a custom house an invoice made in the country where the goods comes from, countersigned by a consul in that country, is required, but inasmuch as Miss Roosevelt didn't buy the present consignment, no such document is available. All that will be required is an approximate list of the articles, with a "value unknown" appended. Miss Roosevelt will make a formal application for appraisement, and the customs officers will estimate the value of the "fabulously costly" ornaments and other things. The boxes will probably be opened at the custom house, although, by giving a further bond, Miss Roosevelt may have them sent to the White House and examined there by the inspectors. The additional bond gives the customs collector the power to recall the goods or any portion within ten days, in case of irregularity. Dutiable goods hitherto consigned to the White House have been appraised at the custom house, Miss Roosevelt's stuff will probably receive similar treatment.

All morning was spent by the general board of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church in further discussing the question of the confirmation of the nomination of Prof. Hinkley Mitchell to the chair of Hebrew in the Boston University. When lunch time had arrived a vote could not be forced and an adjournment was made until this afternoon.

Mrs. Roosevelt and her younger children returned this morning from their cruise down the Potomac on the Sylph. All were in good health.

The Synod.

The third day's work of the Presbyterian Synod of Virginia was held in Richmond, Saturday.

In the afternoon the body assisted in the laying of the corner-stone of the Church of the Covenant. The ceremony was under the auspices of Metropolitan Lodge, No 12, A., F. and A. M., Dr J. W. Eggleston, grand junior warden, presiding. Sealed in the stone were a complete history of the church, a list of the officers and members and copies of the minutes of the General Synod of Virginia. The sermon of the occasion was delivered by Rev. Dr. Russell Cecil, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. Johnson, moderator of the synod, read the prayer. The Scriptures were read by Dr. James P. Smith.

During the night session reports from various committees were heard and discussed.

Officials for Revolution

A dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Paris Temps says it appears that the present movement will result in victory for the people. The general opinion is that the government will not dare to carry out the drastic measures which they have threatened.

Officials from various ministries in uniform have attended public meetings and joined in cries of "Long live the revolution" and "Down with autocracy."

The strikers made light both of the menaces of the government and the promised concessions. Witte has been forced to abandon his efforts to form a liberal ministry. He could not find a single reformer who would enter it.

The Czar has, therefore, either to form a constitution himself or proceed with the impossible task of endeavoring to restore order by force of arms. This has now become more than ever impossible owing to the fact that the Emperor can no longer rely on the fidelity of the army. The revolutionists are well supplied with arms and bombs.

The Russian Revolution.

The imperial guards, whose duty it is to guard the Czar, are rebelling.

Sailors of the guard smashed the windows and furniture of the barracks because they were confined like prisoners.

Officers of the guard announced that they and many of the soldiers were ready to join the revolution.

Count Witte and General Trepoff have disagreed as to the course to be taken.

In a conflict between the troops and a mob in Odessa 27 persons were killed and 90 wounded.

Operators in the telegraph offices in St. Petersburg and other leading cities are stopping work.

Outside Tiflis, trans-Caucasia, a military train was derailed and many Cossacks were killed.

The situation generally is most serious, even the loyalty of the Imperial Guard now being suspected.

Moscow, the ancient capital, has practically set up its own government.

Americans and other foreigners are preparing to flee from St. Petersburg.

Duel With Razors.

J. E. Christopher, a negro who went to Plainfield, N. J., recently, from New York, was slashed to death Saturday by James A. Watson, an itinerant negro preacher. Christopher and his wife occupied apartments over those of Watson. Christopher's wife wanted to cook some fish yesterday on Watson's stove and he objected. They quarreled and the woman grabbed one of the two razors lying on a table. Watson seized the other and they slashed at each other. Christopher took the razor from his wife and set upon Watson. In the fight Christopher was cut repeatedly about the body and arms. The police stopped the fight and Christopher was hurried to the hospital, where he died. Watson and the woman were locked up. Watson is 44 years old and went to that city from Richmond, Va., two years ago.

Gus Goodman, a negro, was taken from the jail at Bainbridge, Ga., at an early hour yesterday morning by a mob of 300 men and lynched on the bank of the river a short distance from the town. Earlier in the night Goodman shot Sheriff Stegall, who was attempting to arrest him for the murder of a colored woman a few minutes before. Goodman was strung up with a rope and fully a thousand shots were fired into his body.

Significant testimony was brought out Saturday in the investigation now going on before the Landis subcommittee into the affairs of the government printing office. The fact was disclosed that two organized efforts had been made in the government printing office, one to work off the surplus copies of printed documents and the other to increase the demand for fine bindings to eat up the appropriations in that department of the office.

The German government is seemingly giving other governments to understand that Germany is strong enough to maintain and extend her position independent of other powers, and therefore cordial understandings against her or alliances for her are not the primary concerns of German policy. Emperor William's speeches are so interpreted by the diplomats in Berlin.

Albert Hemmerle, an employe of the German Gazette, in Philadelphia, Saturday night shot and killed his wife, Alice and, when pursued, killed himself on a Sixth street trolley car. Mrs. Hemmerle was a handsome woman, barely 21 years old. The murder of the wife took place in front of 1648 north Marshall street. Only two bullets were required for the double tragedy—one for her brain and one for his.

Three lives were lost, property valued at $150,000 was destroyed, scores of families were made homeless and freight traffic on the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad was delayed several hours on account of the breaking of a three-foot water main at Eighteenth and Clark streets, Chicago, yesterday. Water from the burst water pipe flooded several blocks, damaging a number of business houses and residences.

There were several sensational developments in Pittsburg Saturday in the investigation of the affairs of the Enterprise National Bank, of Allegheny City, and more startling disclosures are expected to follow. National Bank Examiner John B. Cunningham, who is receiver of the Enterprise Bank, entered suit against W. H Andrews, Territorial Delegate from New Mexico, for over $50,000, charging him with fraudulently conspiring with F. R. L. Nicholls; his private secretary, and T. Kee Clark, the dead cashier of the Enterprise National Bank, to unlawfully procure funds by the proceeds of negotiable paper.

Married last Wednesday, beaten by his three brothers-in-law, his wife kidnapped and put into an insane asylum, after attempting suicide, sum up the honeymoon of Captain Albert V. Deane Reid and his wife, who was Miss Sarah Anne K. Delano, of Mamaroneck. County Judge William T. Platt, at White Plains, N. Y., signed an order Saturday directing the officials of the Bloomingdale Asylum to produce Mrs. Reid in court today. He also ordered Dr. Samuel L. Lyon, the superintendent of the asylum, to allow Captain Reid to see his wife.

After a long and searching examination at police headquarters, in Pittsburg, Pa., lasting until after 1 o'clock yesterday morning, Morris Nathan, secretary to the manager of the "Shepherd King" Company, was held on a charge of murdering his sweetheart, Miss Susan Geary, formerly a member of the chorus of the company and the victim of the suit-case mystery, which has been puzzling the Boston authorities for more than a month. Nathan has completely broken down.

It is announced that the powers have decided to make a demonstration against Turkey's Asiatic, but not her European, ports, in order to avoid the appearance of giving encouragement to the Macedonian insurgents, and that simultaneously a collective note will be presented to Turkey. The cause of this action is the Porte's refusal to accept the plans of the powers for financial and other reforms in Macedonia. Early last week the Porte notified the Austro-Hungarian representative to leave and inform the powers Turkey did not purpose tolerating interference by outside countries in her affairs.

The steamer Kron Prinz Wilhelm of the North German Lloyd line, which arrived at Plymouth, Eng., today, reports that an explosion occurred in her engine room on October 24. Third Engineer Tragar was badly scalded, and died of his injuries yesterday.

Virginia News.

The Rev. Robert Forsyth, rector St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Camden, N. J., has accepted the call to become rector of St. Paul's Church, Richmond.

The Academy of Music in Danville was completely destroyed by a fire, which was discovered about 5 o'clock yesterday morning.

The investigation by the coroner's jury into the death of the two children of Mr. Edward Perkins came to an end in Richmond Saturday night, the jury rendering a verdict that they came to their death from poison criminally administered, but no particular person was charged with the crime. Mrs. McDowell vehemently denied any part in the poisoning, and resented the suspicion of Mr. and Mrs. Perkins against her. She then went into a paroxysm of hysterical weeping.

SHOCKING TRAGEDY.

The most shocking tragedy that ever occurred in that section was the killing by William D. Coker, of himself, wife, two little daughters and a neighbor, Mr. Robert E. Gressitt, at Gloucester Courthouse, Saturday morning about sunrise. As Gressitt came out of his house, Coker, who had been secluded under the porch, fired a Winchester rifle at Gressitt. Mrs. Gressitt ran out of the house at the sound of the shooting. She found her husband lying in a pool of blood at the bottom of the steps with the assassin standing over him with a smoking rifle in his hands. Gressett was not quite dead. Coker prepared to send another bullet into the body of the prostrate man. Mrs. Gressett fell on her knees and begged Coker not to shoot again. Gressett also pleaded with his assailant to spare his life. Coker advanced close to Gressett, poked the rifle against his body and fired again, the second shot killing him instantly. Coker leaving Gressitt, went to the house of a colored man, and gave him a note to take to Plain View. He then went to his home in King William county, two miles away. The note was a request that a message be 'phoned to Mr. Harry Dudley and Mr. John Marston to come to his home, Greenwood, at once and bring an officer.

The colored man stated that Coker told him that he had killed Bob Gressitt, and wanted to kill Jack Gressitt, if he could find him; also told him goodbye; that he would never see him alive again, and that he fixed his wife and children.

When the party arrived at Coker's home to arrest him they heard the report of a gun, Coker killing himself instantly. Going into the house they found Mrs. Coker and the two little girls lying upon the bed with their throats cut. Coker was in a rocking chair, his rifle resting against him and a bullet-hole in his throat pointing towards the brain. He was already dead. His watch and a note were lying on a table. The note stated that Bob Gressitt and his brother, Jack Gressitt, were the cause of it all; that he kissed his wife and children last night at 2 o'clock; that the two little children died easy, but that his wife died very hard, and that he had just kissed his two little angels.

He said he wanted them buried there at the old homestead, and wanted his body buried with his eldest daughter, that he killed his family to shield them of the disgrace.

The note concluded by saying, "My time is at hand—five minutes to 1"—which was the time he shot himself.

No other cause or motive was given. Coker was evidently insane. Mr. Coker was at the store kept by Gressitt Friday night, and they were supposed to be the best of friends. They parted about 8 o'clock. Mr. Coker is a native of South Carolina, and has several brothers and sisters living at Hartsville, S. C.

Ten years ago he married Miss Robbie Roy, who was connected with some of the best families of Virginia. Mr. Gressitt was a merchant and postmaster at Gressitt's Postoffice, in the lower end of King and Queen county.

Storm on Coast.

The Virginia coast was yesterday swept by a nasty northeaster, and shipping sought shelter in port and in Hampton Roads. Advices from Old Point last night were to the effect that the President's yacht, the Sylph, with Mrs. Roosevelt and two of her children aboad, has not yet arrived in Hampton Roads. The Sylph is very small, but can easily weather a gale like this with slight discomfort.

No apprehension is felt for the safety of the party, as it is believed the yacht probably anchored in the Potomac and will loiter toward the Capes, reaching there in time to meet the President. The West Virginia, with the President aboard, got the blow yesterday about 250 miles south of Cape Hatteras. To the big warship, however, naval men say, the storm is of no consequence. Her bilge keels, which make her almost a perfect gun platform in a seaway, will keep her steady, so the President will experience a little discomfort.

Admiral Evans, commanding the fleet in the Roads, telegraphed yesterday for the Mayflower, which was at the Norfolk navy yard repairing. She was sent quickly.

There is no explanation of the urgency of the unexpected order, but it is thought the big yacht is to be sent up the bay to seek the Sylph.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and kept them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." E. S. Leadbeater and Sons, druggist guarantee them at 50c.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A number of Russian flags have been torn down from flagstaffs and several shops have been pillaged. An attack has also been made on the houses of wealthy citizens in the residential section of the city, and several have been destroyed. One of the ruined houses belonged to the Governor General. The troops have contented themselves with firing in the air, hoping to disperse the people in this way, and there has been no bloodshed. There is a general exodus of wealthy citizens to the suburbs.

The President on His Voyage.

Portsmouth, Va., Oct. 30.—President Roosevelt, aboard the armored cruiser West Virginia, is hearing the end of his coastwise journey this morning. The flagship of the armored cruiser squadron of the North Atlantic fleet is abreast of the Virginia coast and is now making good progress toward the capes. Although it was expected that the West Virginia would be abreast of the capes today, the storm of last night has evidently retarded the ship in its passage. Wireless communication has been established with the Virginia again today. During the early hours of this morning the squadron was making 17 knots, according to information by wireless. At thirty-five minutes after midnight the calls of the West Virginia sending a message to Governor Myron T. Herrick at Cleveland, O., in reply to his congratulatory message to the President after the Magnolia accident in the Gulf, were heard. The President said: "Hearty thanks. I warmly reciprocate your good wishes." The message was sent ashore from the West Virginia by wireless and overland to Cleveland.

Woman Stabbed to Death.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 30.—During a drunken brawl in a house in the Italian section of Rome, late last night, Miss Sophia Denri, aged 21, was stabbed to death by James Collagneli when she resented an insulting proposition made to her. The girl belonged in Canastota, where her parents and brothers reside, and she was visiting in Rome at the home of her aunt, where the tragedy occurred. Collangeli was in love with the girl, but she was already affianced and expected to be married during the present week, and in consequence resented his attentions. She slapped his face last night, when he spoke in an indecent manner to her, and this enraged the Italian. He pulled a dagger from his pocket and stabbed the girl in the neck, severing the jugular vein, and she died within a few minutes. Slashing at others in the house, Collangeli escaped, but was arrested at 3 o'clock this morning at his brother's home a short distance from the scene of the murder. He is 19 years old.

Suicide of Money Clerk.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 30.—Edward Darden, money clerk of the postoffice here, committed suicide this morning after being asked by inspector to turn over all the cash in the drawer and his books for examination. No shortage in his accounts has as yet been discovered.

Attempt to Rob a Bank.

Erie, Pa., Oct. 30.—Four masked men at 3:30 this morning made an attempt to rob the bank of Slocum, Becham & Company, at Saegertown, Crawford county. The safe combination was blown off but the timely action of the village barber across the street, who heard the explosion, cut short the work of the robbers. Securing a shot gun he fired into the bank, frightening the robbers away. Aroused by the shooting, the towns people gave chase to the thieves but they made good their escape in two buggies.

Trouble on Russian Man-of-War.

Morris Nathan's Confession.

Pittsburg, Oct. 30.—A complete confession of all he knows of the murder of Susan Geary, known as Ethel Durrell, in the "Shepherd King" theatrical company, whose dismembered body was found in Boston harbor several weeks ago, and around the finding of which much mystery has clustered, has been made by Morris Nathan, the intended husband of the girl, who is lodged in the central police station. Nathan declares he will return to Massachusetts without requisition papers.

Prince Sails for Annapolis.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 30.—Rear Admiral Prince Louis, of Battenburg, left here today on his flagship, the Drake, for Annapolis, Maryland. The Drake was accompanied by the Bedford, Berwick and Cumberland, which are part of his squadron. The squadron is expected to reach Annapolis on Wednesday. It will remain there until November 8, and in the interim the prince will pay a formal visit to President Roosevelt.

Gov. Montague in his speech at Louisa Saturday night appealed to the voters to stand by the party at the coming election. He said that he was neither a sulker nor a kicker, and that he wanted the people to follow his example and stand by the party. Considerable significance is attached to his remark that this might be the last time he would have an opportunity to address the voters of Virginia in a political campaign.

Strike in Finland.

Helsingfors, Finland, Oct. 30.—Urged on by the taunts of the people in Finland at the time of the great Russian crisis made by agitators in St. Petersburg, the factory workers of this city have inaugurated a sympathic strike. The authorities are greatly alarmed over the situation, as the garrisons have been depleted until there are only 4,000 troops in Finland, and none can be sent from Russia in the present crisis.

Letter to J. M. Pettit.

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: The Fair Ground buildings, Cobleskill, N. Y., were painted Devoe last year.

Two other-paint agents said the job would take 150 gallons (their price was 15 cents less a gallon).

Our agent said not over 125.

It took 115, We saved 'em at least $140 on paint and labor.

The American House, Tannersville, N. Y., was painted two coats last year; not Devoe.

Mr. Charles Haner, across the street, put on one coat Devoe.

Mr. Wiltse (American House) is sorry he didn't paint Devoe. Haners one coat was better than Wiltsel's two.

Depends on the paint

The New Ferryboat.

While hundreds of persons were on wharves on the river front and on hills yesterday afternoon watching for the appearance of the new ferry steamer Woodbury, the boat was snugly berthed at Yorktown at least 165 miles from Alexandria, while an easterly wind was raging and a heavy sea rolling "outside."

The Woodbury left Wilmington at 12:10 Saturday and proceeded to Delaware Breakwater. She made her way down the coast, entered the capes and would have passed this city yesterday evening, as announced. On her way up Chesapeake Bay, however, she was buffeted by a heavy storm, and was compelled to run into York river. She lay at Yorktown until this morning and then resumed her voyage toward this city. She is expected to pass Alexandria late this afternoon.

The trial trip will be made tomorrow, the steamer being scheduled to leave Washington at 11 o'clock and Alexandria half an hour later.

The Woodbury is a steel hulled vessel 196 feet long and wide of beam. Her main deck has the large cabins on each side and alley ways in the center for teams. She has deck room, it is stated, for about twenty teams, while more could be crowded aboard. On the saloon deck the steamer has a spacious saloon, and around the outside of the saloon a wide deck runs. The steamer will be handsomely fitted out for comfort, speed and convenience. Her rudders are protected by an overhanging spar, which will protect them from the ice while the steamer is in service during the winter. The steamer is equipped with high power, both for speed and to break thick ice, as it is proposed to keep the boat in service during the winter mouths. The Woodbury will be commanded by Capt. J. C. Milburn, who has been in the N. & W. service for a number of years. The following appointments to positions in the service have been made; Washington terminal, Jos. H. Clink, ticket seller; W. H. Schoeni, gateman, and John A. Horgan, ticket chopper, and at the Alexandria terminal, J. B. Padgett, ticket seller; E. H. Brawner, gateman, and Arthur Donnelly, ticket chopper.

The interest manifested by Alexandrians in their eagerness to see the new boat was intense, and from early in the afternoon until long after dark numbers of people were on the lookout. Between six and seven o'clock a bank of light appeared in the river off Fort Washington, and it was assured that the Woodbury was drawing near. Many took positions on hills in the southeastern section of the city. After waiting about twenty minutes it was discovered by the eager throngs that they had been watching one of the old river steamers.

A few years ago persons were living who remembered the arrival of the old steamer Columbia of the Baltimore line. Many were attracted to the river front to see that primitive boat.

In October, 1859, equally as many appeared on the wharves and hills to witness the arrival of the steamship Mount Vernon, which had been built to run on the line between this city and New York. She fired a cannon when she reached Jones's Point and continued to do so at intervals until she arrived at her docks between Cameron and Queen streets. Later the Monticello of the same line reached this port.

The advent of the Woodbury has excited almost as much interest as the two steamers referred to above.

Suit Compromised.

In the Circuit Court for Alexandria county, Judge C. E. Nichol presiding, the case of Mrs. Nettie C. Elsom against the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company, a suit for $10,000 damages for personal injuries received in a collision of trains at the western limit of this city on the night of the first of March last, terminated Saturday evening in a compromise which was reached by the attorneys after all the evidence had been heard. The amount agreed upon was not made public, but it is understood that it was $2,250. The case occupied the attention of the court for the better part of two days. The plaintiff was represented by Attorney Leo Harlow, while the case for the defendant company was conducted by Attorneys R. Walton Moore and James R. Caton.

The damage suit of Wells against the same company, growing out of the same accident, was continued until the December term.

Stricken with Apoplexy.

George Canning Wilde, one of the oldest newspaper men in Virginia, but who for several years has not been connected with the press, in Richmond, was stricken with apoplexy yesterday morning. He was removed to a hospital for treatment. Mr. Wilde is nearly 80 years old and is widely known. It is believed that the attack was superinduced by old age and attendant infirmities. He is said to be in a rather serious condition. Mr. Wilde is well-known in Alexandria, where he has many friends. Shortly after the close of the civil war he came here from Richmond and was an attache of the Virginia State Journal, then published by Cowing & Gillis in the building now occupied by the Relief Hook and Ladder Company. In the early seventies he was associated with the late M. D. Ball in the publication of the Virginia Sentinel in this city.

Mission Service.

Services were held last night for the first time in the Chapel of the Good Shepherd Mission, just erected at the corner of Fairfax and Franklin streets. The chapel is a pretty little building erected through the energies of a number of ladies of the city and the students of the Episcopal Theological Seminary. It is being gradually furnished and made comfortable. The services last night were conducted by Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, who preached the sermon, and several of the students. A large congregation was present.

Last night was the coldest of the season. A heavy frost fell and thin ice formed in exposed places.

Democratic Committee.

A meeting of the city democratic committee was held Saturday night in the Hotel Fleischmann. Mr. George L. Simpson who acted as chairman during the period in which Chairman Charles Bendheim was engaged as a candidate in the contest for the nomination for the clerkship of the city courts, relinquished the position, which was thereupon assumed by Mr. Bendheim. A resolution was adopted thanking Mr. Simpson for the able and impartial manner in which he had presided over the meetings of the committee. A resolution which was presented by R. Theodore Cook was adopted, providing for the appointment of a committee to investigate charges of certain irregularities at the polls in the second ward during the special primary for the clerkship held October 12. Under the resolution a committee of three members was appointed and will probably at the next meeting. The object of the resolution is to investigate a charge against Committeeman George E. Price, who, it is alleged, marked a blind man's ticket contrary to the manner in which he desired to vote. Messrs. Brent, Cook and Phillips were appointed on the committee. After discussing matters pertaining to the general election in November the meeting adjourned.

Mr. Price denies the charge made against him and says he wants the charge fully investigated. He stated that he will produce an affidavit from the man whose ballot is in question to the effect that he, (Price) had marked his ticket as directed and that the man's vote was cast in accordance with intentions expressed to several people. Mr. Price also said that the man is not blind, as stated in the resolution, but that his eyesight is simply somewhat impaired.

During the meeting Mr. Bendheim suggested that something should be done to infuse some life into the present campaign, and moved that Senator Martin and Gov. Montague be invited to speak in this city next week. A resolution was adopted authorizing Mr. Bendheim to engage the opera house for the earliest possible date and secure speakers. Before the meeting adjourned Mr. Phillips suggested that in future only known democrats be allowed to participate in democratic primaries. Messrs Carter and Brent opposed any such action at this time, but it was generally agreed that such a resolution would be passed by the committee after the November election.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

David Brown, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Samuel Haney and Charles Robey, arrested by Officer Ferguson for disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $5 each.

Robert Hill and Celia Keys, both colored, arrested by Officer Allen charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $2.50 each.

George W. Jackson charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Accident.

Five cars on a westbound freight train near Leesburg, on the Bluemont division of the Southern Railway, jumped the track about 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning, and three brakemen, J. W. Gaines, W. A. Carr and W. Hix, all of this city, were injured. They received several cuts and bruises and were brought to their homes here early yesterday morning. The condition of Gaines was sufficiently serious to cause his removal to the Alexandria Hospital later. Hix and Carr were less seriously injured. A wrecking train was sent out from here to the scene and the track was cleared in a few minutes. The accident was caused by a broken journal.

Funerals.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Margaret J. Walsh, widow of John J. Walsh, and who died in Washington last Friday night, took place this morning from her late residence in that city. The remains were subsequently brought to this city and interred in St. Mary's Cemetery, Rev. H. J. Cutler, officiating.

The remains of Mrs. Maria A. Whitemore, who died in Washington last Friday, were brought here yesterday and interred.

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Cox, who died Friday night, took place yesterday at Annandale. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Williamson.

Drowned from Launch.

Henry Bartlett, thirty-eight years old, living in Washington, employed on the steam launch Bye Bye as a fireman, accidentally fell from the boat into the Potomac river Saturday night opposite Holland Point, Md. Bartlett was married, and is survived by his wife and two children. It is not known exactly what caused the man to fall overboard, but it is believed he must have fallen asleep while sitting on the rail, and when the boat gave a sudden lurch lost his balance and fell backward into the river.

The Washington Sewer.

The District of Columbia may not save $10,000 in the condemnation of land for the outfall sewer; at least it is evident that the property owners who are affected by the condemnation proceedings will not allow the verdict to be confirmed without contesting it. As evidence of this Alfred T. Grimes on Saturday filed exceptions to the verdict, and prays that the same be not confirmed. The land through which this sewer passes is largely used for truck gardening, and it is claimed that the emptying of 65,000,000 gallons per day into the river near by, will not only destroy the salability of their land, but also the healthfulness of the neighborhood. The citizens of Alexandria, as well as the Navy Department officials, have strenuously objected to the mouth of this large sewer opening in such close proximity to the shores of the property in question, but these objections have been unheeded.

Rixey vs. Stevens.

A special term of the U. S. Circuit Court began in this city this morning for the purpose of trying the suits of Representative John F. Rixey and his brother, C. Jones Rixey, against C. A. Stevens, for alleged malicious defamation of character. The plaintiffs claimed damages in the sum of $30,000 each. The court room was well filled when the case was called, a large number of witnesses and friends of both parties to the suit being present. The plaintiffs were represented by Messrs Barbour & Rixey, of Culpeper; Keith & Keith, C. M. White, of Warrenton, and C. V. Meredith, of Richmond. The defendant's attorneys were Messrs. R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax; Eppa Hunton, jr., of Richmond, and Edward Turner, of Warrenton. In his declaration Representative Rixey charges that the defendant published a letter in which he used such terms as "thieves like Rixey," "spoils," "blood," "holdup," "jackal," "cloven foot," "hocus pocus," and others of a like character in reference to the plaintiff and his public acts, "by means of which," the declaration further recites, "the plaintiff has been, and is, greatly prejudiced in his credit and reputation and brought into public scandal, infamy and disgrace." When the case was called the attorneys were not ready and a recess was taken. Shortly before 1 o'clock Judge Waddill notified the jury that the attorneys were still engaged on the case and had asked for a short delay whereupon a recess was again taken till 2 o'clock.

About 2:30 o'clock court was called to order. In the meantime there had been rumors of a compromise. Immediately upon Judge Waddill taking his seat upon the bench, the attorneys announced that they had reached a settlement in the matter which was agreeable to all parties concerned. The attorneys thereupon submitted a paper in the form of an apology to Hon. J. F. Rixey, signed by Mr. C. Amory Stevens, the defendant in the case. This was accepted and the judge entered an order to this effect, ordering that the paper be entered upon the minutes of the court and published in the Alexandria Gazette. He also ordered that all costs in the case be paid by Mr. Stevens. Thus ended this celebrated case. The letter of Mr. Stevens will be found in another column.

Poolroom Case Goes Up.

Mr. Mackey, Commonwealth's Attorney for Alexandria county, yesterday received a message from the attorney general of Virginia, stating that John C. Nelson and James Lafontaine, of this city, had been given until tomorrow noon by Judge Waddell, of the U. S. Court of the Eastern district of Virginia, in which to apply to Chief Justice Fuller, of the U. S. Supreme Court, for an appeal from the decision rendered in their case recently. Nelson and Lafontaine were prosecuted by the State of Virginia on the charge of conducting a poolroom at Jackson City. As a plea of defense they set up the claim that they were a bona fide telegraph company and that Alexandria county was a part of the District of Columbia. The case was carried on habeas corpus proceedings and writ of error out of the State courts into the Federal court, in which both petitions were dismissed. Judge Waddell also denied their petition for an appeal, but granted them time in which to lay the matter before Chief Justice Fuller.

The tent will hold a mass meeting in the Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon, November 26, at 3 o'clock, at which time some of the best speakers in this section will be present. The music committee will be appointed at the meeting tonight to arrange for music.

Charge Against a Conductor.

George W. Harrison, father of a young man named Albert Harrison, has preferred charges against Conductor Mason Downs, of the electric railway, charging him with assault upon his son. The case was to have come before the Police Court this morning, but was postponed on account of the absence of material witnesses. It is alleged that the conductor slapped the youth, who had jumped on an electric train at King and Fairfax streets, and that he fell from the train and sustained serious injuries, he being unable to use his lower limbs.

They will deliver or call for passengers at any address, and establish a regular service to and from the new passenger station. The fare has been placed at 10 cents. Rixey-Stephens Controversy—Card from Mr. Stephens.

Hon. John F. Rixey, Brandy, Va.

Dear Sir: I have heretofore written and circulated sundry letters, some of which were addressed and sent to Alexander Hamilton, sheriff of Fauquier county; William Kidwell and Nathan Bickford, of Washington, D. C.; James Taylor, foreman on my farm in Fauquier (with instructions to the latter to show the same to all his neighbors); S. Russell Smith, of Culpeper; the Times-Dispatch, of Richmond, Va., and also a letter to you dated October 27th, 1905, in all of which I made statements reflecting upon your character and conduct, on account of which statements contained in the said letter to the Times-Dispatch and Alexander Hamilton you are now suing me in an action of libel which is pending in the United States Circuit Court for the Eastern district of Virginia.

I am convinced that none of the charges, statements or insinuations in reference to you contained in any of the above mentioned letters are true and that I have therefore done you great injustice and wrong. Accordingly I am now willing to make such apology, retraction and reparation as is in my power, and I therefore withdraw each and every charge of misconduct made by me against you, and hereby not only retract, but apologize for ever having made the same.

I will send a copy of this communication to every person to whom I have sent or mailed the charges indicated, and especially will I instruct my foreman, James Taylor, to show the copy which is to be sent him to every person to whom he exhibited the letters containing the matter alleged against you. I will also cause this statement to be published in the Alexandria Gazette. I will pay all costs in the said action including your attorneys' fees, and I will ask the court to enter this retraction and apology upon its records and make such order as may be necessary to carry it into effect. Yours respectfully.

(Signed) C. AMORY STEVENS.

A Heartfelt Tribute to a Friend.

A friend of former United States Marshal Isaac O. Barnes having died, he attended the funeral. He arrived promptly and seated himself in the crowded room to await the services. For some reason there was a very long delay, and the solemn silence of the darkened room was anything but congenial to a man of Mr. Barnes' disposition. The heat also was very oppressive.

Fanning himself vigorously with his hat and twisting uneasily in his chair, Barnes remained silent for what to him was a very long time. But at last, being unable to contain himself longer, he leaned over toward a solemn looking man on his right and remarked in a hoarse whisper audible all over the room, "I presume you were well acquainted with Billy," referring to the deceased.

"Yes, indeed," said the stranger. "He was a very fine man."

"I should say he was," replied Barnes, "and smart, too; smarter than lightning. Why, sir," he continued in a louder whisper, getting excited, "if he had had the running of this funeral he'd been underground an hour ago."—Boston Herald.

Antiquity of Wood Engraving.

Wood engraving, the art of cutting designs on wood in relief, is said to have been known and practiced by the Chinese as far back in the world's history as the reign of the famous Emperor Wu Wang, 1120 B. C. Wood stamps were without doubt used by the ancient Egyptians and Romans for marking brick and other articles of clay and in various European countries for attesting deeds and documents at a very early period, when writing was quite a rare accomplishment. Wood engraving, as we now understand it, dates from the beginning of the fifteenth century and was used at that time in Germany for printing playing cards and figures of saints. The earliest known example is in a collection made by Earl Spencer. It represents St. Christopher carrying the infant Saviour across the sea and was found pasted within the cover of a Latin MS. in an old convent in Bavaria, dated 1423.

A Friendly Suggestion.

An old man in a Scotch village had a big eight day clock which needed repair, so he took it on his back to carry it to the watchmaker's. As he went along the village street an acquaintance met him, glanced at him and passed on. After he had got about fifty yards away his friend called out to him, "Hi!" Back went the old man laboriously to where the other stood. "Man," said his friend, "would it not be far handier if ye carried a watch?"

A Little Tale From Fairyland.

"Just by way of experiment," said the first fairy, "I appeared to ten men at random and asked them to make a wish, and seven of them wanted to know how to play the races."

"Ah!" said the other elf. "Only seven? But, I presume, the others thought they knew."—Punch.

Odd Coincidence.

Mrs. Janson said to Mrs. Lammis in perfect confidence, "Do you know mine is the prettiest baby in the world?"

"Well, really, now, what a coincidence!" said Mrs. Lammis. "So is mine!"

Indulgent.

"Katherine, you will always find me an indulgent husband."

"Do you mean indulgent to me or indulgent to yourself?"

Last Hope Vanished.

When leading physicians said that W. M Smithart, of Pekin, Ia., had incurable consumption, his last hope vanished; but Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Cold, kept him out of his grave. He says: "This great specific completely cured me, and saved my life. Since then, I have used it for over 10 years, and consider it a marvelous throat and lung cure.' Strictly scientific cure for Coughs, Sore Throats or Colds; sure preventive of Pneumonia. Guaranteed 50c and $1.00 bottles at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons drug store. Trial bottle free.

Could Not be Better.

The uniform success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has won for it a wide reputation and many people throughout the country will agree with Mr. Chas. W. Mattison, of Milford, Va., who says: "It works like magic, and is the best preparation I know of. It couldn't be any better." He had a serious attack of dysentery and was advised to try a bottle of this remedy, which he did, with the result that immediate relief was obtained. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

For All Kinds of Piles.

To draw the fire out of a burn, heal a cut without leaving a scar, or to cure boils, sores, teter, eczema and all skin and scalp diseases, use DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for blind, beeding, itching and protruding piles. Stops the pain instantly and cures permanently. Get the genuine. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

A Splendid Idea.

A new idea in a Cough Syrup is advanced in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. Besides containing Pine Tar, Honey and other valuable remedies. It is rendered Laxative so that its use insures a prompt and efficient evacuation of the bowels. It relaxes the nervous system, and cures all coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. A red clover blossoms and the honey bee is on every bottle of the Original Laxative Cough Syrup—Kennedy's Laxative Honey Tar. An ideal remedy for children. Mothers praise it. It is best for all. Sold by W. F. Creighton, & Co., 401 King street.
